MD On-Line Partners with Fidelis Care for Direct Healthcare Payment Processing

New Relationship Allows 37,000+ Healthcare Providers and Medical Transport Community to Benefit from the Efficiency of Electronic Claims Submission

Parsippany, New Jersey – December 21, 2008 – MD On-Line, Inc., a proven leader in enabling interoperable EDI transactions between healthcare payers and providers, today announced that it has established a direct processing relationship with healthcare insurance carrier Fidelis Care, the largest government programs-based health plan in the State of New York. This new relationship is designed to reduce administrative costs and improve the speed of payment by enabling providers to submit transactions to Fidelis Care electronically. As part of the agreement, MD On-Line will actively market to the Fidelis Care provider community.

With a network of over 37,000 medical providers and an extensive community of medical transportation providers, Fidelis Care serves more than 550,000 people in 48 counties throughout New York. In developing this relationship with MD On-Line, Fidelis Care joins more than thirty other major carriers who also have named MD On-Line as their preferred EDI provider, MD On-Line has created a co-branded web portal for Fidelis Care (www.fideliscare.org/submitclaims) that allows its providers to submit their transactions through MD On-Line at no cost.

According to Fidelis Care (title) (name), the decision to align with MD On-Line just made good business sense. “MD On-Line has proven itself time and again to be the leader in converting paper-transacting providers to electronic ones, and their reputation for first class customer support is important to us.". (He) (She) added, "We are committed to doing our part to contain healthcare costs where we can, and to helping our providers do the same. This is a total win/win for us and our providers."

Commenting on the new relationship, Bill Bartzak, President and CEO of MD On-Line noted, "We are excited that Fidelis Care is joining us and the more than 30 other major health insurance companies with whom we have a co-branded relationship and for whom we serve as the "go to" company for electronic claims processing. He added, "Based on experience, we know that this will not only be good for Fidelis Care and its providers, but also for the more than 1800 payers to whom we process claims."
